

Banjaara '17 - Code of Conduct

1. Right of entry to Ashoka University campus, for the purpose of this event, is reserved by the Banjaara Fest Committee 2016-17. Entry inside campus shall not be permitted unless online registration has been completed within the deadline. The participants shall be required to show their registration confirmation email for entry to be permitted.
2. The participant will be required to produce his/her University/Institute-issued identity card at the time of entry into the campus. In case a participant does not possess his/her University/Institute-issued identity card, they should obtain a 'No Objection Certificate' from their institution. No participant shall be allowed to enter the University premises without producing his/her University/Institute-issued identity card.
3. Only the registered participants shall be allowed to enter the campus premises. Frisking of individuals along with their belongings will take place at the University's main gate to ensure safety and security of all.
4. Upon confirmation of details, participants shall be required to sign an undertaking submitting to policies and regulations of Ashoka University shared on our website (www.ashoka.edu.in).
5. If any participant(s) is found guilty of any of the acts or omissions barred under the Ashoka University policies, the participant(s) shall be immediately expelled from the fest. The matter will be reported to the concerned authority/department of their respective institution and the university administration may take any further action against the individual(s) or team(s) as they deem fit.
6. Any physical damage to Ashoka University property will be dealt with strictly and reimbursement for the same will be claimed from the offenders.
7. On completion of the registration process, participants will be provided with wristbands which will serve the purpose of participant identification throughout the duration of the fest. Participants are required to wear the bands at all the times in order to access the permissible university premises and all events of the fest.

8. On Saturday, February 11th, 2017, entry gates will open only after 9:00 AM. No participant shall be allowed to enter/exit university premises between 11:30 PM (11th February, 2017) to 6:00 AM (12th February, 2017)
9. Most of the events end by 4:00 pm on 12th February, 2017. Hence, all participants are expected to start vacating the campus thereafter. Shuttle services (20 seater) will be available in every 30 minutes till 7:30pm only.
10. While the participant's safety is our utmost priority, Ashoka University and Banjaara Organizing Committee will not be liable for any untoward incident occurring during the fest.
